

Preparing Instruction: Materials

Selected Text: How Women Broke into the Male-Dominated World of Cartoons and Illustrations Topic: Sex Based Discrimination	Text Divided into Smaller Sections or Passages: Y <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> N <input type="checkbox"/> Text Copied for Students: Y <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> N <input type="checkbox"/> N/A <input type="checkbox"/>	Vocabulary for Pre-Teaching: Pseudonym Overt Sexism Contributions	Plan for Building Background Knowledge You Tube video: Gender Equality Explained by Children
--	--	--	---

Preparing Instruction: Text-Based Planning

Text Selection 1

What is the focus of the selected section?
 Person Place Thing Idea

This passage is about a person named Dalia Messick.

What are the 2-3 most important details from the section?

1. Dalia Messick was a cartoon artist.
2. She couldn't get published because she was a woman so she changed her name to "Dale."
3. After she changed her name, her cartoon became popular.

Gist Statement (10 words or less)
Dalia Messick changed her name to overcome sexism and succeed.

